Privacy

The ATO is authorised by the Taxation Administration Act 1953 to request your tax file number (TFN). We will use your TFN to identify you in our records. It is not an offence not to provide your TFN. However if you do not provide your TFN, your assessment may be delayed.

Taxation law authorises the ATO to collect information and to disclose it to other government agencies. For information about your privacy go to ato.gov.au/privacy

I declare that:

- all the information I have given on this tax return, including any attachments, is true and correct
- I have shown all my income – including net capital gains – for tax purposes for 2013–14
- I have completed and attached the supplementary section, schedules and other attachments – as appropriate – that e-tax told me to provide
- I have completed item M2 – Medicare levy surcharge
- I have the necessary receipts and/or other records – or expect to obtain the necessary written evidence within a reasonable time of lodging this tax return – to support my claims for deductions and tax offsets.

IMPORTANT

The tax law imposes heavy penalties for giving false or misleading information.

FOR YOUR TAX RETURN TO BE VALID

Date 10 08 2014

The ATO will issue your assessment based on your tax return. However, the ATO has some time to review your tax return, and issue an amended assessment if a review shows inaccuracies that change the assessment. The standard review period is two years, but for some taxpayers it is four years. For more information go to www.ato.gov.au/notices

When printed, this return had not yet been lodged online to the ATO. We recommend printing your return after successful online lodgment.
